HELP HURRICANE HARVEY EVACUEES Metrocrest Services Needs Your Help

Metrocrest Services is actively engaged in supporting Hurricane Harvey relief efforts to help aid those individuals and families who left everything behind.

Individuals seeking help from Metrocrest Services have surged since Hurricane Harvey made landfall over the weekend.

And with more and more families traveling north, we anticipate the number of individuals seeking assistance to grow over the next few weeks.

How you can help:

- Donate food, household, hygiene items from the list provided – choose lightweight and compact items.
- Make an online donation that will help replenish the pantry items currently being used for the individual's evacuee box – choose "Pantry" as your gift designation. Visit metrocrestservices.org to give now.
- Volunteer your time to help sort and assemble evacuee boxes. Contact Brittni Coe, Volunteer Manager, at (469) 317-2541 or email bcoe@metrocrestservices.org to find out about available dates and times.

With your help, staff and volunteers will assist displaced evacuees with a box consisting of essential food, hygiene, and household items. Clothing vouchers and other services will be provided as needed.
